

IS SOMEONE YOU KNOW CONTROLLING HOW TO SPEND YOUR MONEY, TAKING AWAY YOUR FREEDOM TO SEE FAMILY AND FRIENDS, OR YELLING AND PHYSICALLY HURTING YOU?

The NSW Ageing and Disability Abuse Helpline is for anyone to talk about concerns of an older person or adult with disability being abused and mistreated by someone they know in their home or in their community.

1800 628 221
(M-F, 9-5)

You have the right to feel safe and be treated with dignity and respect in your home and in your community.

By contacting the helpline, you can:

- 1. Get information on what services are available to help.
- 2. Speak with a trained professional about your concerns.
- 3. Be supported to make an anonymous report, and be heard without judgement.

Make an online enquiry at anytime at ageingdisabilitycommission.nsw.gov.au

In an emergency, call 000 or Lifeline 13 11 14 for crisis support
National Relay Service 1800 555 660 | Text Telephone 133 677 | Interpreter Services 131 450